The International Institute of Business Valuers Welcomes The National Association of Authorized Romanian Valuers (ANEVAR)

Toronto, CANADA - The International Institute of Business Valuers (iiBV) is pleased to announce the National Association of Romanian Valuers (ANEVAR) as its newest member Valuation Professional Organization (VPO). ANEVAR joins The Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators \(CICBV\), China Appraisal Society \(CAS\), National Association of Valuers of Serbia \(NAVS\) and The Saudi Authority for Accredited Valuers \(Taqeem\).

ANEVAR is a not-for-profit, non-governmental and independent organization which acts in the public interest and promotes valuation methods in the real estate and business valuation disciplines in Romania. Founded in 1992, ANEVAR supports 4,000 professional members and over 500 associated legal entities, carrying out valuation related activities in 40 territories and counties, and 11 centers in Bucharest. The organization supports and promotes valuation methods in business, real estate, personal property, and financial assets through organized training and education.

“We look forward to collaborating with ANEVAR for years to come,” says iiBV Executive Director, Michael Badham, “their membership with the iiBV supports a common goal we have with many global valuation organizations in providing support to standardized valuation practices through quality education.”

“Joining the iiBV will enhance our valuation education program and bring to our members the ability to build on their skills to compete in a global market,” says Daniel Manate, President of ANEVAR.

The iiBV, together with its member VPOs, leads the business valuation profession globally by providing educational opportunities, promoting consistent professional ethics and standards, facilitating the exchange of information and ideas, and encouraging international co-operation and communication.
